Queen Elizabeth Dining Choices

If anything sums up the freedom of your cruise, it is the array of places to eat, from healthy to hearty, from light bites to haute cuisine.

It's simply a case of deciding what you're in the mood for. The menu at The Verandah features speciality seafood and tender cooked-to-order prime cuts.

Within either Kings Court or the Lido, alternative venues include Aztec with its Mexican flavours, Asian delicacies at Bamboo, Italian-themed La Piazza and the Smokehouse, inspired by a classic American grill.

Queen Elizabeth Entertainment

Each evening, the entertainment team will entertain you with stunning dance productions, classic theatre and cabaret artistes.

Cunard ships are also particularly social ones, with organized activities throughout the day that are conducive to meeting new people. Aboard Queen Mary 2, for instance, guests might enjoy a game of Pub Trivia in the Golden Lion Pub (always a great way to meet new people) before heading off to enjoy one of the many lectures and live music performances onboard or take in the traditional afternoon tea at sea. There are gentleman dance hosts for solo ladies to dance the night away
