WHY PONANT

Discover the treasures of the land by sea on board luxurious yachts that are built on an intimate, human scale. French crew, expertise, attentive service, gastronomy: set sail in a five-star environment and enjoy a travel experience that is simultaneously authentic and sophisticated.

CRUISES WITH THE FRENCH TOUCH

Onboard Ponant's cruise ships, it is only natural that a certain French art of living permeates on board. Through their accessible crew, French design, refined cuisine, fine wines, and discreet service, Ponant guests enjoy a truly relaxed and elegant experience.

DESTINATIONS

Ponant have designed unique itineraries that will transport you to new destinations and new experiences all around the world: mooring in the heart of Mediterranean hidden bays, sailing between the majestic glaciers of Antarctica, an expedition to the remote lands of Alaska, or island hopping in the Caribbean.

UNIQUE TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

For more than 25 years, Ponant cruises have been offering remarkable experiences to their guests. Sailing aboard one of their ships means enjoying rare encounters with nature in the heart of virgin territories. It means discovering other cultures and traditions, sharing memories with tribes from the other side of the world. It means enjoying the magic of the Ponant Moment.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC & PONANT: Discover our new exclusive expedition voyages

From 2019, PONANT and NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC will partner together to bring the spirited adventure traveller a unique opportunity to embark on a selection of new expedition cruises to some of the most intriguing and remote destinations on the planet.

Discover the difference

PONANT, a leader in polar expeditions for almost 20 years, boasts the world's most modern fleet of expedition ships. Designed to sail the distinct seas in comfort and safety, their small size and manoeuvrability help reach the most remote lands. Over the past 130 years, NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC has sent scientists, storytellers and adventurers across continents and into remote cultures, down to the oceans' depths and up the highest mountains in an effort to better understand our planet.

Now PONANT and NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC have joined forces and combined their expertise to offer a selected range of new, unique and enriching expedition cruises to some of the world's most intriguing, remote and pristine destinations, in the very places where the most amazing pages of exploration were written.

Knowledge: Let PONANT experts guide you

When you travel with NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC and PONANT Expeditions, you gain access to inspiring experts. You are enriched by the knowledge on the PONANT expedition team and by National Geographic experts and photographers. You'll be surrounded by people who are steeped in knowledge and insights about the places PONANT go and they're passionate about sharing that knowledge with you.

Exploration happens because of you

When you travel with NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC & PONANT Expeditions, you help further the work of PONANT scientists, explorers and educators around the world. Every year, PONANT distribute a portion of their proceeds to the National Geographic Society, creating more opportunities to work toward a planet in balance.

CELTIC SHORES

8 days | Portsmouth to Dublin | L'Austral

Departing 10 May 2020

SAVE UP TO 30%*

Step aboard the L'Austral for an 8-day cruise to lands of legend and romance. Your first port of call will be at Guernsey, then at the Isles of Scilly, a strange little archipelago whose landscapes seem to have come straight out of Enid Blyton's famous story, The Rockingdown Mystery. Here, long sandy beaches stand alongside green fields, while ruins of old castles stand proud on hilltops.

Step ashore at Cobh, a maritime port in County Cork in south west Ireland, and take a trip to discover the picturesque village of Blarney - a village famous for its castle - and Kinsale - a charming little port sheltered within the Bandon Estuary.

Sail to the Isle of Man, located between the United Kingdom and Ireland. You will discover the capital Douglas, a postcard from United Kingdom of yesteryear with a Victorian atmosphere.

During your stopover in Belfast, you can visit the Giant's Causeway. This massive geological formation is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and features over 40,000 basalt columns.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Between Portsmouth and Dublin, sail into the heart of Celtic shores, lands of magic and legends;
- Unesco World Heritage Sites: from Belfast, the mysterious Giant's Causeway site, the old port of Liverpool, Dublin, city of literature (disembarkation port);
- From Cork, there will be the possibility to visit Blarney Castle, an imposing fortress with numerous hidden treasures, including the famous "Blarney Stone";
- After your cruise, discover Dublin, the Irish capital brimming with convivial atmosphere and authentic charm.

ISLANDS OF THE NORTH SEA

11 days | Copenhagen to Reykjavik | Le Bellot

Departing 2 Jun 2020

From Denmark, your 11-day cruise aboard Le Bellot—one of the latest additions to our fleet—will take you to Iceland, via Norway, Scotland, the Orkney Islands and Shetland Islands, as well as the Hebrides.

You will visit Stavanger, a cosmopolitan and prosperous small town with a perfectly balanced blend of old and new. During your stopover, walk the paved streets and admire the wonderfully preserved fishermen's houses that date from the 18th century.

You will then reach the Shetland Islands and the port of Lerwick. This port is well known because just a few kilometres inland lie the remarkable ruins of Scalloway Castle, built in 1600. Then it will be Kirkwall, the capital of the Orkney Islands off the coast of Scotland, home to sea birds, gannets, shags, grey petrels and many other animals.

You will also discover Heimaey, the only inhabited island in the Westmann Islands. Fishing is the main source of income in this exceptional site. You can admire its volcanoes and its almost-desert like landscapes.

Finally, sail to Reykjavik, the most northerly capital in the world, lying slightly above the 64th parallel. Houses with colourful roofs line its streets and this, coupled with the many ducks in its lake, produces a picture postcard setting. It boasts real cultural riches, particularly in contemporary art, notably with the Reykjavik Art Museum.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A cruise from Denmark to Iceland, visiting several archipelagos in the North Sea: the Shetland Islands, the Hebrides, the Orkneys.
- On your embarkation, there will be the possibility to visit Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark.
- Sailing in the Lysefjord, meaning the "fjord of light", flanked by granite cliffs that are several hundred metres high.
- Heimaey Island provides a possibility to observe the colonies of puffins, the real treasure of this island off the Icelandic coast.
- Portree, the main town of the Isle of Skye, with its lively port and its cultural centre.

Departing 19 Aug 2020

Included: Economy Flight from Seattle to Juneau & transfer from airport to pier of Juneau

SAVE UP TO 30%*

This exceptional itinerary will take you from Alaska to British Columbia, to discover magnificent landscapes marked by the Gold Rush.

After embarking in Juneau, the capital of Alaska long inhabited by the Tlingit people, sailing along Tracy Arm, one of Alaska's most beautiful fjords, will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of your cruise.

Do not miss the chance to visit Skagway, where many pioneers came in search of gold at the end of the 19th century, and Haines, where majestic bald eagles are often spotted flying over the houses.

You will then continue sailing between rain forest and glacier valleys to reach the small city of Ketchikan, home to charming, colourful stilt houses, and the wonderful landscapes of the Misty Fjords.

Before disembarking in Vancouver, you will make your way down the east coast of Alaska, whose Inside Passage, shaped by the sculpture of imposing glaciers, is home to vertiginous fjords. Here, the natural environment includes glaciers, coniferous forests, and myriad islands and islets magnified by the wonderful play of light.

The encounters with the wildlife described above illustrate possible experiences only and cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Discover Alaska's breathtaking landscapes: fjords, glaciers, waterfalls, primary forests, giant sequoias.
- Wildlife: brown bears, black bears, sea otters, orcas, humpback whales, bald eagles.
- Tlingit American Indians Art and traditions in Ketchikan.
- Visit of Skagway, the gateway to the mythical "Golf Rush" with optional walk along the railroad of White Pass.

THE SEA OF CORTEZ

13 days | San Diego to Puerto Quetzal | L'Austral

Departing 7 Oct 2020

SAVE UP TO 25%*

An unforgettable expedition experience discovering the Sea of Cortez unique landscapes and unrivalled biodiversity.

Enjoy the renowned pleasant climate of San Diego before setting sail along Baja California peninsula and entering the Gulf of California, also known as the Sea of Cortez. For four days, observe the rich marine wildlife of playful sea lions, dolphins, tortoises and dozens of different species of fish. Dropping anchor near a number of islands off the Sea of Cortez, and outings in Zodiac dinghies will offer the chance for unforgettable snorkelling and hiking tours. Your ship will then chart a course towards Huatulco in Mexico and its preserved bays edged with magnificent beaches, before reaching your final destination: Puerto Quetzal in Guatemala, very close to the charming colonial town of Antigua.

The encounters with the wildlife described above illustrate possible experiences only and cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- An expedition cruise, to discover the fabulous biodiversity of the Sea of Cortez, "the world's largest aquarium" according to Jacques-Yves Cousteau.
- Outings and shore visits in Zodiac inflatables with a team of experienced naturalist guides.
- UNESCO World Heritage sites: the islands and protected zones of the Gulf of California (also known as the Sea of Cortez), La Antigua de Guatemala and its colonial architecture from Puerto Quetzal in Guatemala.
- The landscapes: reliefs of red volcanic rock plunging into the turquoise water with the desert as the backdrop in the Sea of Cortez, dazzling white sandy beaches in Huatulco (shore excursion for sale).
- The wildlife: California sea lions, dolphins, sea turtles, tuna, barracuda, rays, pelicans, countless species of fish and sea birds.
- Bathing and swimming with sea lions at Los Islotes.
- Possibility of diving (PADI Advanced Open Water Diver or equivalent) with an experienced instructor on board and of snorkelling with your expedition team.

JEWELS OF LATIN AMERICA

13 days | Puerto Quetzal to Callao | L'Austral

Departing 19 Oct 2020

SAVE UP TO 30%*

Taking in no less than five countries, a route to discover the most beautiful sites of Latin America. Before you board the ship in Puerto Quetzal, visit the impressive Mayan site of Tikal and the ruins and baroque monuments of La Antigua de Guatemala.

When your ship calls at San Juan del Sur in Nicaragua, travel to Granada, at the foot of the Mombacho volcano, a town is teeming with architectural treasures combining Moorish, Andalusian, Baroque and neo-Classical styles. After a call at Puerto Caldera, visit the beautiful Poas Volcano National Parc and stop in Quepos, the gateway to one of Costa Rica's finest natural treasures, the Manuel Antonio National Park with forest and abundant wildlife, fringed with idyllic beaches. Your ship will then drop anchor in Guayaquil, Ecuador. It will be the starting point for the visit of the historical centres of Cuenca and Quito, both UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Conclude your journey with the jewels of Peru: the archaeological site of Chan Chan, the largest adobe citadel in pre-Colombian America, as well as the unmissable Machu Picchu, the marvel of Inca architecture.

HIGHLIGHTS

- UNESCO sites: the archaeological site of Chan Chan from Salaverry; the historic centres of Quito and Cuenca from Guayaquil; Lima and Machu Picchu from Callao; La Antigua Guatemala from Puerto Quetzal.
- Discovering an exceptional architectural heritage, between Granada and its many Andalusian-Moorish constructions (from San Juan del Sur), Lima and Trujillo and their rich colonial heritage.
- Visiting one of the national parks of Costa Rica, pristine natural sanctuaries that cover almost a quarter of the country.
- Before your cruise, discover the famous Tikal pyramid, one of the major sites in pre-Columbian Maya culture.
- After your cruise, discover the mythical site of Machu Picchu from Callao.

FROM THE ARABIAN PENINSULA TO INDIA

14 days | Muscat to Colombo | Le Bellot

Departing 28 Oct 2020

SAVE UP TO 30%*

Sail on a brand-new 14-day cruise between the Gulf of Oman and the coasts of India and Sri Lanka, departing from Muscat. Come aboard Le Bellot and set off to discover the treasures of the desert of Arabia and the luxurious landscapes of India and Sri Lanka.

Your ship will first take you towards Dubai, the kingdom of excessiveness, before dropping anchor in Khasab, the gateway to the sublime "fjords of Arabia" that you will be able to explore aboard a traditional boat.

Le Bellot will then call at Mumbai, India's cultural and economic capital. Make sure you visit the Elephanta Caves, a Hindu sanctuary on an island off the coast of Mumbai, and the Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus railway station (formerly known as Victoria Terminus), a remarkable example of Victorian neo-gothic architecture: both sites are UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

You will then discover Goa, a former colony of the Portuguese Indies prized for its beaches and its rich cultural heritage, in particular a collection of late 16th-century churches and convents, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Your ship will then arrive in Kerala, on Malabar Coast, in south-western India. From Cochin, you will have the opportunity to discover, aboard traditional boats, the fishing villages settled along the banks of the "backwaters", a network of lakes and canals that criss-cross the lush landscapes of Kerala.

Conclude your journey by disembarking in Colombo, the capital of Sri Lanka, located at the cross roads of the maritime trade routes between Europe and Asia.

HIGHLIGHTS

- An all-new itinerary discovering Oman, the United Arab Emirates, India and Sri Lanka.
- Treasures of Islamic, Buddhist and Hinduist culture, between tradition and modernity.
- UNESCO World Heritage Sites: the Elephanta Caves and the Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus railway station in Mumbai, the churches and convents of Goa; in Sri Lanka, the historic city of Polonnaruwa and the golden Temple of Dambulla, the old town of Galle and its fortifications.
- Discover exceptional natural sites: the "fjords of Arabia", canyons and oases, deserts of dunes.
- Overnight in Colombo.
